Parent and child activity

In this story, Bemp and Toab go on a surf trip, in their van!

Have you ever been surfing? When you surf, you need to have good balance to stay up on your board in the water. Perhaps you could try some different balances together? Could you balance on one leg? Could you balance on your hands? What about a one point or a two point balance?

Toab and Bemp go to the coast for their trip. How far away do you live from the sea? Where is your nearest beach? Perhaps you could find out together.

You earned 1 alien.
